THE WIDE OPEN SPACES.

By Hal E. Roach.

A greenhorn, Stan Laurel, has just bought the rocky mountains on the installment plan, and when he goes to locate on his property, he runs into plenty of trouble with local land squatters.

Laurel seeks aid of the local sheriff and on doing so, he is promptly installed as a Deputy Sheriff himself and braced up by this imaginary power, he attempts to gain, what he thinks, is his own property. He runs afoul of the gang, many shots are fired and when the smoke of the battle clears away, the tenderfoot comes out on top.
